Commissioners' Proceedings

At an adjourned session of the board of county commissioners of Bernalillo county, held on September 20, 1915, there are present: Hon. Alfred Grunfeldt, chairman; M. B. Springer, auditor; and A. E. Walker, clerk. The following claims are ordered paid: B. Ruppel, drugs and medicines, $104.15. Strong Bros., linoleum for assessment office, $111.27. The board of Molesto Apodaca as butcher is approved. The order of District Attorney H. H. Correll in the matter of the whiskey and liquor license is read. His opinion is that the provisions relative to the transfer of licenses apply only to retail liquor licenses. Dr. Spitzer calls of the conditions as to contagious diseases in the mountain villages and suggests the employment of a trained nurse. Thereupon it is ordered that a trained nurse be employed for one week to stay in the infected districts and minister to the needs of such persons as require care. It is ordered that Carlos E. Arnold, assistant health officer, be allowed $2 per day compensation during the present epidemic of contagious diseases. Admitted.

Approved, ALFRED GRUNFELDT, Chairman. Attest, A. E. WALKER, Clerk.
